

The Wonders of Chinese Opera

In cooperation with International Arts Management Consulting

Wednesday, February 9, 7:00pm

It is amazing that a company specializing in such an exotic art format at such a high level of achievement exists in the Washington area.—Joseph McClellan, The Washington Post

The Chu Shan Chinese Opera Institute, was established in 1992 by Zhu Chu Shan, internationally renowned director of Chinese opera and Judy Huang, award-winning opera star. In this performance, four presentations include: Marvelous Chinese Traditional Arts; Fighting in the Dark; Long Silk Streamers; and Peach Party Scene from “The Monkey King.” The actors characteristically rely upon stylized movements and symbolic action to portray events and characters. If you have never seen Chinese Opera, this performance offers a grand opportunity; if you have, you will be delighted to renew acquaintance.

Members: $20; Public: $25

Public Programs Registration:

phone: 202.639.1770

fax: 202.639.1822

online: www.corcoran.org

mail: Program Registrar
Corcoran Gallery of Art
500 17th Street, NW
Washington, DC 20006

Registration Policy: No tickets are mailed for Corcoran Public Programs. Faxed and mailed registrations are confirmed by phone. Registration for programs must be accompanied by cash, check or credit card payment. All registrations are final and non-refundable unless the program is cancelled. Every reasonable effort will be made to notify registrants of cancellation by phone. Please allow 3-4 weeks for processing refunds. The Corcoran reserves the right to substitute speakers/performers, relocate or reschedule an event due to unanticipated scheduling conflicts or emergency situations including inclement weather. Walking tours are held rain or shine. To receive membership, student or any other discount or price reduction registrants must identify themselves at the time of registration.

The Frances and Armand Hammer Auditorium

Corcoran Gallery of Art 500 17th Street, NW Washington, DC 20006